

1. Professional Background

Shabana S is a dedicated Lead Trainer and Consultant in Aptitude and Reasoning with eighteen years of work experience across aptitude and reasoning training, verbal ability, soft skills, campus placements, competitive-exam preparation, recruitment, content development, and training operations. Armed with an MBA in Digital Marketing, a PGDHRM, and a B.Tech in Chemical Engineering, she combines practical, confident training delivery with a passion for strengthening learners' problem-solving, communication, and employability skills.

2. Highlights

- Wide Training Scope: Delivers training in Quantitative Aptitude, Logical Reasoning, Verbal Ability, and Soft Skills, including preparation for competitive examinations and campus recruitment.
- Content & Curriculum Development: Develops training syllabi, learning materials, recruitment-test content, and structured training schedules, and coordinates training delivery and train-the-trainer activities.
- Corporate Training: Has conducted corporate training on Women Empowerment, Soft Skills, Motivation, and Induction programs for organizations such as Expertus India Pvt Ltd, Titan Industries, and iBDO.
- Recognition: Recipient of the Service Excellence Award from Expertus India Pvt. Ltd. in 2007 and 2008.

3. Professional Experience

She brings eighteen years of experience across educational institutions, training organizations, and recruitment environments, including project management, placement activities, administration, and managing operation teams in regional and international organizations. She is currently associated with Saveetha Engineering College, where she delivers Aptitude and Reasoning training with a focus on communication, interview skills, and career readiness.

Prior to her current position, she was involved in business management at E Square Training Consultants and provided career guidance consultancy to institutions in Tamil Nadu. She has also served as visiting faculty at IIIT Sri City and as a subject matter and content advisor for Woxsen University. Earlier, she led the Quants and Reasoning division at KL University.