

1. Professional Background

Mrs. P. Sneha Priya is a dedicated Assistant Professor and Soft Skills Trainer with over 14 years of teaching experience in Soft Skills, Verbal Ability, and Reasoning Ability training. Armed with an MBA and currently pursuing a Ph.D., she combines a goal-oriented approach with structured training in communication, analytical thinking, and personality development to improve learners' employability and placement readiness.

2. Highlights

- Research & Conferences: Presented four papers at international conferences, including ICATEM 2025 (Bangkok) and the Dubai conference on Advanced Technology in Engineering and Management (2024).
- Certifications: Holds the IITM Pravartak Career Counsellor Certification (Grade A) and NPTEL certifications, including AI in Human Resource Management (83%, Top 5% – Silver).
- Special Sessions: Served as Resource Person for Personality Enhancement (Verbal Communication) for non-teaching associates (2022) and delivered soft skills training for non-teaching staff, drivers, and housekeeping personnel (2025).
- AI-Enabled Pedagogy: Completed multiple FDPs and workshops on AI in teaching, research, and data analytics.

3. Professional Experience

She brings over 14 years of experience, currently serving as Assistant Professor at Saveetha Engineering College since August 2021. In this role, she delivers training in Soft Skills, Verbal Ability, and Reasoning Ability, and contributes to curriculum development and student-centric training methodologies.

Prior to her current position, she worked as Branch Coordinator cum Senior Trainer at the Mother Teresa Rural Education Development Charitable Society, Chennai (June 2018 – March 2020), where she coordinated the Smile Twin e-Learning Programme (STeP) for underprivileged youth and managed branch operations. Before that, she worked as a Communication Trainer (January 2010 – May 2017), delivering communication and soft skills training.